Govt of Mysore.

Sir,

Reference your D.O of this morning I herewith forward warrant for the despatch of men and horses to Calcutta by route you mention.

2. The line gear and horses food mentioned in your letter is not entered on the warrant as it should accompany the horses free of charge.

3. Column 4 of the warrant should be filled in by the officer superintending the despatch and the warrant signed by him at the foot.

4. The warrant has been made out for 9 soldiers as requested by you, but 1 man is allowed to travel free for each horse in addition

Should any men be taken, the number to travelling up to one per horse waggon should be deducted from the total of 9, and the balance only entered in Column 2 i.e. if you are employing 5 horse waggons four should be entered in Column 4 against item 2 in Column 3.

I have made out the account for Passenger train, but have explained in Memo No 9 of last night am unable to say whether you have made special arrangements to that effect, that they will get through together and will not be split up.
